

UP

a dance for camera

created by

Wilderness: Dance Expeditions and Creative Research

Directed/Choreographed by Amber Ellison, UP torques the rules of gravity to create a landscape that is both twisted and liberating, urban and funny. It asks: How do we continue to dance in a world lacking a sense of direction? Performers includes Kim Richardson, Laura Selle Virtucio and Jesse Walker.

This exciting new film can be seen at Rolling Footage - a Dance Film Festival at Macalester College

When: ONE NIGHT ONLY! Saturday, February 10 at 7:30 PM

Where: John B. Davis Lecture Hall, Macalester College Campus Center on the southwest corner of Snelling and Grand Avenues

Box office: 651-696-6359

Tickets: $5 (free for students with ID)

Directions to Macalester College:

From Highway 94:

take the Snelling Ave. exit going south (exit #238)

follow to Grand Ave. (the 4th stoplight - after Marshall, Selby, and Summit)

Parking is available in the Janet Wallace Fine Arts Complex lot.

From Snelling, turn west on Grand Ave.

Go 1 block to Macalester St. and turn left.

Go 2 short blocks and turn right onto the service road - follow it around to the parking lot.

Photo by V. Paul Virtucio

Check out our website at www.wildernessdance.org